

Information Publishing

The founder of the scientific - practical journal "Bulletin of the North-Caucasian Institute of Humanities" is a private institution private educational institution of higher education "North-Caucasian Institute for the Humanities", organized in 1995, the university implemented a specialty and directions included in the enlarged group of specialties: economics and management, law.